MONEY-EARNING GUIDELINES—Troop/SU Activities

- All money earned for a girl event or activity is considered Girl Scout money and can only be used for girl programming. Money-earning activities cannot benefit any other organization.
- Money-Earning Request forms for girl events or activities must be completed and returned to Membership Support for approval at least 30 days prior to the money-earning project. DO NOT engage in money-earning activities until approval is received.
- Girls must participate in the Council Fall Product Sale and Cookie Sale to receive approval for money-earning projects. The requested money-earning activity must also meet the five (5) leadership outcomes.
- If the Money-Earning Request is for an Extended Trip, an approved Activity Request Form or Extended Trip Request Form must accompany this request.
- Money Earning Activities may not be completed during the Girl Scout Cookie Sale or Fall Product Sale.
- All money earned for a girl event or activity is considered Girl Scout money for girl programs and cannot benefit an individual.

PROJECT INFORMATION

Project must meet the five leadership outcomes. Please check all that apply.

___ Girls develop a strong sense of self. Girls have confidence in themselves and their abilities and form positive identities.

___ Girls develop positive values. Girls are ethical, honest, and responsible, and show concern for others.

___ Girls seek challenges in the world. Girls take appropriate risks, try things even if they might fail, and learn from mistakes.

___ Girls develop healthy relationships. Girls develop and maintain healthy relationships by communicating their feelings directly and resolving conflicts constructively.

___ Girls can identify community problem solving. Girls desire to contribute to the world purposeful and meaningful ways, learn how to identify problems in the community, and create "action plans" to solve them.

In understand and agree to adhere to the regulations in GSWESTOKS policies (available at <https://gswestok.org/forms/>) concerning this project and understand the permission must be obtained from parents before this project begins. Furthermore, I understand funds raised by this money earning activity must be sent to the Council for processing, receipt, and acknowledgement if donors wish to be received for tax purposes.
